Thank you so much to all our families who shared their views. Our partnership is really important and your feedback a key element in our evaluation of the impact of our work. It is important that our families feel that their voice is heard and should you have any suggestions that could inform our next steps, please do let us know. Similarly, if ever you have a question, query or concern, please do come and talk to us.

A further opportunity for our families who have children with Special Educational Needs/Disabilities will follow in the spring term.
